

Creator Basics

What are the qualifications to become a creator?

Any promotional account with engaging and quality content can apply to have a creator account.

Because you are starting your paid creator account on OfficialMe you are running a business that will generate income. Identity verification is required by our payment provider Stripe before your creator account is active and set up to accept payments.

If you are unable to verify your identity during the application process, we will not be able to set up a creator account for you at this time.
